

台灣大學

1. The Biden administration has already been stepping up _____ with Saudi Arabia on a variety of issues in recent months.
a. cooperation, b. complication, c. commencement, d. coagulation.
2. The tools that Russian forces are using to wage war are often powered by American _____.
a. interaction, b. insinuation, c. innovation, d. inculcation.
3. Sociologists had spent much of the 20th century trying to understand poverty and shifting class stratifications across the _____.
a. spectrum, b. spell, c. senility, d. sophistication.
4. Dungeons & Dragons turned out to _____ as a perfect bridge from statistics-oriented, win-or-lose simulations of complex combat to character creation and story-oriented play.
a. spend, b. send, c. sense, d. serve. ■
5. From abroad, the American flag is a straightforward stand-in for the _____-state.
a. group, b. nation, c. people, d. human.
6. The President of PEN Germany recently _____ that "the enemy is Putin, not Pushkin," relying on word games to protest against the idea of a "blanket boycott" of Russian culture.
a. defused, b. descended, c. declared, d. demoted.
7. With his threats to use the bomb, Russia's president has _____ the nuclear order.
a. overturned, b. overreacted, c. overstepped, d. overwhelmed.

【版權所有，重製必究！】

8. The historic Maya _____ their calendars and rituals to celestial events.
a. amplified, b. anticipated, c. audited, d. anchored.
9. Despite the increase in anti-Asian hate crimes in the U.S., one-third of Americans _____ unaware of the situation.
a. recede, b. remain, c. represent, d. retinue.
10. Defenseless-looking ribbon worms are anything _____, according to a study of the many toxins that they produce.
a. yet. b. as well. c. however, d. but.
11. Elden Ring has a story that has something to do with a ring, but more important is its design: It's an open-world game, meaning you can do _____, whenever you want.
a. wherever, b. whatever, c. whoever, d. whichever.
12. _____ mounds in the southwest corner of the Amazon Basin were once the site of ancient urban settlements, scientists have discovered.
a. Mysterious, b. Mystified, c. Misperceived, d. Misfired.
13. Humans produce _____ two million blood cells each second, derived from a relatively small pool of haematopoietic stem cells.
a. leisurely, b. intensely, c. roughly, d. precisely.
14. An analysis finds that women have a better chance of winning awards not named _____ a person than of winning prizes named _____ a man.
a. after, b. before, c. as. d. with.
15. Alexander Pope wrote in an age of Party - in the political rather than Downing Street sense -and his kind of intelligence was exactly _____ to an environment in which different groups of people knew different things and supported distinct political causes.
a. attempted, b. atoned, c. attached, d. attuned.

【版權所有，重製必究！】